

ALDER COMMONS

A HUB FOR SELF-DIRECTED WORK & PLAY

While we are feeling disconnected from others due to the coronavirus, we're grateful to have the chance to build up the Alder Commons community online. Check out some of the events that we (and our friends in town) are hosting this week! All events are open to all ages.

Alder Commons programs this week:

- Fermentation
- Visual Storytelling
- Minecraft Club
- Drawing from Observation
- Listening Circle
- Photo Editing
- Intro to Beatmaking
- Intermediate-Advanced Spanish
- Trees are Amazing

Monday, April 13th: Collaboration with PUGS

Tomorrow evening from 6-7pm we're teaming up with Portland Underground Graduate School (PUGS) for a Virtual Happy Hour to discuss self-directed education, and what engaged learning looks like, including in the context of a pandemic. We would love it if you could join! Please RSVP ahead of time.

Tuesday, April 14th: Wayfinding Academy's Self-Care Workshop

On Tuesday from 3-4:30pm, our friends at Wayfinding Academy are hosting another workshop on Crafting a Pandemic Self-Care Plan that's also free and open to anyone interested. Spots are limited, so sign up soon!

If you're interested in facilitating a class or workshop, please let us know by filling out this form. These online programs may continue for a while, and we'd love to hear from you about what you're excited to share, even if this week doesn't work for you!

We are sending all of our best wishes for good health and sanity during this time, and look forward to when we can spend time together in person!

Be well,

— Alder Commons Organizing Team
